Day 2 | Perth to Hyden (Wave Rock) via York

Leaving the city lights behind, we journey eastward over the Darling Escarpment toward York, one of Western Australia's oldest towns, nestled on the banks of the Avon River. As we travel through the picturesque Wheatbelt, we are greeted by rolling hills adorned with blooming wildflowers. A must-see stop is the Corrigin Dog Cemetery, a heartfelt tribute to man's best friend. Next, we embark on a 12-kilometre stretch along the famed 'Tin Horse Highway,' where we can admire a whimsical collection of tin horses that line the road.

Our adventure continues to Hyden, where we can explore Hippo's Yawn and Wave Rock, a stunning granite formation that rises 15 meters and stretches 100 metres long, resembling a giant surf break. Enjoy the scenery with a short walk along the base while soaking in the beauty of the wildflowers. En-suited Hotel Room - Wave Rock Motel, Hyden \(B,L,D\)

Day 3 | Hyden to Kalgoorli

Today's journey begins as we travel along unsealed roads, departing from the Wheatbelt and entering the Goldfields region. We delve into the rich history of the pioneers who settled this land before arriving at the stunning salt lakes and gum tree landscapes.

Our first stop is Coolgardie, a former mining town that marked the beginning of the gold rush in this region.

Next, we make our way to Kalgoorlie-Boulder, home to the iconic Super Pit gold mine. This city is celebrated for its mining heritage, water pipeline, and historic hotels. This evening, we will enjoy dinner at one of the local restaurants in town.

Day 4 | Kalgoorlie to Esperance

We kick off the day with tour of Kalgoorlie-Boulder, followed by an insightful visit to the Super Pit. As we bid farewell to the vibrant city, we make our way to the Great Southern region of Western Australia. Here, we encounter pink lakes, breathtaking National Parks, the picturesque South Coast, and the charming town of Esperance. We will spend two nights here, with our accommodation located along the town's foreshore.

En-suited Hotel Room - Comfort Inn Bay of Isles, Esperance \(B,L,D\)

Day 5 | Esperance & surrounds

Today, we venture beyond the town to discover the nearby National Parks.

After some time in town and visiting the salt lake, we head to Cape Le Grand (Lucky Bay), where we search for kangaroos on the stunning white, squeaky sandy beach. We make various stops and take short walks to enjoy the breathtaking beauty of the south coast and seek out vibrant wildflowers. You have the opportunity to swim at Lucky Bay. Upon returning to town, you will have some time to unwind and enjoy Esperance at your own pace.

Day 6 | Esperance to Albany

Departing Esperance, we will take the coastal route to enjoy a scenic stop at Twilight Cove before crossing the Rabbit Proof Fence at Starvation Bay. Our next destination along the way is Hopetoun, situated at the boundary of Fitzgerald National Park. We will delve into the breathtaking beauty of Fitzgerald National Park, featuring vibrant wildflowers and stunning coastal views. This area boasts unspoiled wilderness along one of the most magnificent stretches of the West Australian coastline. Upon our arrival in Albany, we will settle into our accommodation for three nights, located on the edge of Princess Royal Harbour. En-suited Hotel Room - Hilton Garden Inn, Albany \(B,L,D\)

Day 7 | Albany & surrounds

Today, we embark on a journey back in time to explore the rich history of Albany. Our first stop is the National ANZAC Centre, followed by a visit to the Desert Mounted Corps Memorial atop Mount Clarence, where we can enjoy breathtaking panoramic views of the ocean and the town. Next, we will explore Albany's Historic Whaling Station and wander through the wildflower and wildlife garden located to the east at Cheynes Beach. After a day filled with adventure, we will head to Torndirrup National Park, home to the stunning Natural Bridge and The Gap, both remarkable landmarks on the town's outskirts. As we conclude our exciting day, we will return to Albany and dine at one of the charming local restaurants by the harbour. En-suited Hotel Room - Hilton Garden Inn, Albany \(B,L,D\)

Day 8 | Stirling Range National Park & Porongurup National Park

Heading north of Albany, we explore Stirling Range National Park, home to Bluff Knoll, the tallest peak in the South West. We can enjoy some short walks to truly appreciate the park's stunning beauty. Porongurup National Park is a special place to stroll among the towering karri and marri trees, immersing ourselves in the wonders of nature. On our way back to Albany, we'll stop by Mt Barker for some leisure time in town before enjoying dinner at one of the numerous restaurants. En-suited Hotel Room - Hilton Garden Inn, Albany \(B,L,D\)

Day 9 | Albany to Karri Valley

Travelling further into the southwestern corner of Western Australia today, our first destination is William Bay and Elephant Rocks, near Denmark. We take a moment to immerse ourselves in the stunning beauty of the bay, and for the adventurous, a refreshing dip in the ocean could be a tempting option. Continuing along the coastal highway, we head into Mt Frankland National Park, the only other location in WA besides Rottnest Island where you can find quokkas. We embark on a walk to the lookout perched high above the treetops, keeping our eyes peeled for a quokka along the way. Our next adventure takes us deep into the Walpole wilderness, where we explore The Valley of the Giants Treetop Walk, standing an impressive 40 meters above the ancient giant tingle trees. After a scenic drive through the region's forests, we arrive at Karri Valley, nestled on the edge of Lake Beedelup within Greater Beedelup National Park. We enjoy a delightful meal at the restaurant, with a picturesque view of the lake. En-suited Hotel Room - Karri Valley Resort, Pemberton \(B,L,D\)

Day 10 | Karri Valley & surrounds

Today, we venture beyond the town to discover the nearby National Parks. After some time in town and visiting the salt lake, we head to Cape Le Grand (Lucky Bay), where we search for kangaroos on the stunning white, squeaky sandy beach. We make various stops and take short walks to enjoy the breathtaking beauty of the south coast and seek out vibrant wildflowers. You have the opportunity to swim at Lucky Bay. Upon returning to town, you will have some time to unwind and enjoy Esperance at your own pace.

Day 11 | Karri Valley to Margaret River Region & Busselton

Today, we journey to the most south-westerly point of Australia, where the Southern and Indian Oceans meet. Our adventure begins with a tour of the tallest lighthouse on the mainland: Cape Leeuwin Lighthouse. After enjoying the views from the lighthouse, we will delve into the depths of Jewel Cave, exploring its three chambers filled with stunning stalactites, stalagmites, and limestone formations. As we travel north along the coast, we will pause at Hamlin Bay to observe the stingrays near the water's edge, before winding our way along Caves Road through the enchanting Boranup Forest to reach Margaret River. Throughout our journey, we will make scenic stops to take in the breathtaking coastal moments, finally settling into our accommodation on the foreshore of Busselton for our two-night stay. En-suited Hotel Room - Hilton Garden Inn, Busselton \(B,L,D\)

Day 12 | Margaret River Region

This morning, we venture into the northern region of the South West. Our journey may include a stroll along a section of the Cape to Cape track, a visit to the Cape Naturaliste Lighthouse. After a lively morning that will surely work up an appetite, indulging in a well-deserved lunch and wine tasting at one of the local wineries is essential. Following this, we'll make our way to the town of Margaret River, where you can browse the shops and sample the local delicacies. At the end of this exciting day filled with exploration, tasting, and enjoyment, we will return to our accommodation. En-suited Hotel Room - Hilton Garden Inn, Busselton \(B,L,D\)

Day 13 | Busselton to Fremantle

Today, you can choose to embark on an optional train ride or take a leisurely walk along Busselton Jetty before enjoying a guided tour of the underwater observatory, where we'll descend eight metres to the ocean floor. As we begin our journey back from the South West to the vibrant city lights of Perth, we carry with us the wonderful memories we've created. To wrap up our adventure, we share a farewell dinner whilst reminiscing about the incredible experiences we've had together. En-suited Hotel Room - Esplanade Hotel, Fremantle \(B, L, D\)

Day 14 | Farewell Breakfast

The tour will conclude after breakfast which you can enjoy at your leisure. (B)
